CENTREVILLE NOTES.

The Frances Harper Coat of Calantha celebrated their first anniversary on May 17th, by a banquet. The Richard Allen Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., was invited. Each Calantha invited two guests. Castle Hall was decorated with the stars and stripes. The tables were ornamented with a beautiful collection of roses. At 9 o'clock p. m., the audience was called to order by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. E. M. Harnook, after which Miss Maggie Walker extended a welcome to the guests in a few remarks, which was followed by a speech by Prof. T. J. Clinisson, Principal of the Centreville Normal and Training School, who praised the Court for its work and pointed out a successful future to their onward strides. At 10 p. m. The menu, which consisted of twenty different courses, was served. After this a five-gallon stand of H. Sudekum & Co.'s ice cream was served as a change, which was enjoyed by all. The entertainers were Misses Easter Lowe, Lessie Whiteside and Reverta Meriweather. The last mentioned is a music teacher in the Centreville Normal and Training School. These ladies made the most of every moment and spared no pains to see that every guest was royally entertained.

Richard Allen Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., conferred the Page, Esquire and Knight Rank on the following last Tuesday night: Lee Lowe, Albert Walker and R. M. Walker.

There seems to be an epidemic among the people of Centreville for music. The following persons have installed pianos into their homes in the last thirty days: Mrs. I. C. Vaudier, Mrs. Lettie Walker, Mrs. M. Martin, and Mrs. H. C. Bailey.

Mrs. R. M. Walker, who has been sick for quite eight weeks is able to resume her work at home.

Mr. Sam Walker left here last Thursday morning for Nashville with his brother, Robert Walker, who went to the City Hospital for an operation to be performed on his throat. Mr. Sam Walker returned Sunday and reports his brother doing nicely after the operation.

Messrs. Shipp, Baily & Co. hope to have their ice cream parlor completed by June 15th.

Mr. H. C. Bailey, manager of Shipp, Baily & Co., states that their business is good and they cannot get the goods in as fast as they can sell them. Their delivery wagon is always going. They furnish groceries for the workers at the Phosphate Mines as far out as eight miles in the country.

Mrs. H. C. Baily and her little son, Stanly C. Broome Baily, visited her mother last Sunday in East Centreville.

Mr. Wm. Easley opened his ice creamery and restaurant on May 21.

SMYRNA NOTES.

Mrs. L. F. Ferguson closed a very successful term of her school Friday. An excellent program was rendered and an excellent dinner was served. Quite a large crowd visited the annual meeting and baptizing at Sand Hill last Sunday. Smyrna and Lavergne were largely represented.

Mesdames R. McCullough, H. Porter, D. Hawkins, Misses I. Beatey, L. Perry, L. Battle, Mr. T. Battle and wife, came up from the city Sunday morning and spent a pleasant day at their old homes.

Mr. J. I. Wade and Miss Lucinda Dunnon are in Nashville this week.

Miss Phebe Richardson is in Nashville this week seeking medical advice.

Mr. H. Hibbett, of Lavergne, promises to get a Globe every Saturday.

Misses Mary E., Sarah A. and Isabella Beaty visited Miss E. M. Perry and the Cartwright girls Monday.

The competition between the classes in the rally at the Baptist Sunday school next Sunday promises to be quite interesting.

See R. L. Perry every Saturday and get the Globe.

Children's Day Program Now Ready.

We take pleasure in announcing that the program for Children's Day, which should be observed by all Sunday schools in the United States, is now ready. The program is one of the best ever gotten out. It is volume 10, No. 2, and is prepared especially for Children's Day, which is to be held Sunday, June 3, 1907. The order of exercises is arranged on the inside of the cover and outlines just how the program should be used. The Scripture reading, the singing, as well as the verses for reciting and the declamations have been selected with all possible care. These programs will be distributed gratuitously to all Sunday schools who will apply to the National Baptist Publishing Board at 523 N. Market street, Nashville, Tenn., and agree to give a collection to home missions. Nearly all of the music in the program is from our own composers. If Children's Day is to be observed by the Sunday schools, they should have their programs in time, so that the music and pieces may be well rehearsed by the scholars. Hundreds of orders have already been filled. Only a few days and the supply will be exhausted.
